

KENNEL CLUB INTERNATIONAL AGILITY FESTIVAL REPORT

- The International Agility Festival in 2022 will be held at Rutland Showground near Oakham from 11-14 August
- Skinner's sponsorship will come to an end after Crufts 2022. It is unknown if Skinner's will be renewing for another 3 years, we hope to know this by the beginning of the year
- Plans for 2022 are starting to happen. Judges have been invited and will be allocated to rings by the end of December 2021. The schedule will go live early April
- First Place Processing will be handling all IAF entries as well as the live results at the show
- "First Contact" is the equipment supplier for all rings
- The layout of the event will remain the same as how it was in 2021
- Camping spaces will be limited to 750 units with spare spaces in case of having to move people's camping spots due to weather
- Two International judges are confirmed:
 - o Mr Jorge Pires from Portugal
 - o Mr Regin Reinhard from Denmark
- If you would like to attend the event please email agilityfestival@thekennelclub.org.uk for further details
