The Kennel Club welcomes Jannine Edgar as new Chief Executive

Further to the announcement of Mark Beazley's departure on the 30 September, The Kennel Club is pleased to announce the appointment of Jannine Edgar as the interim Chief Executive.

Kennel Club Chairman Tony Allcock OBE said; "Under Mark's leadership over the past four years The Kennel Club has made significant progress in shaping our future direction, ensuring our resilience in a challenging external environment.

"Mark guided us through the bulk of the covid pandemic and spearheaded our first corporate strategy and transformation plan and has worked tirelessly to support and encourage our people through challenging times. On a personal note, Mark will miss working with The Kennel Club staff and board and we will miss working with him.

Two new exhibitions open at The Kennel Club

The Kennel Club Art Gallery has unveiled two new exhibitions dedicated to the medium of drawing, showcasing a vast collection of eye-catching and impressive drawings of dogs.

Drawings of Dogs will feature all styles of drawing, and will include works by artists such as Marjorie Cox, Barbara Robinson Tester, Gary Stinton, Julie Brenan and Gifford Ambler, many of which are being exhibited for the first time. There will also be 19th century charcoal and chalk drawings after Sir Edwin Landseer's painting of a Newfoundland entitled A Distinguished Member of The Humane Society, the original of which is currently on display at The Kennel Club, on loan from Tate.

The exhibition includes a collection of stunning original sketchbooks, owned by the 19th Century animalier artist George Earl, known for his paintings of sporting dogs. These sketchbooks represent an important recent donation to The Kennel Club's collections and were given by the Earl-Tomaszewski family, Australian descendants of the artist. This will be the first time that they have ever been on public display.

Ciara Farrell, Head of Culture and Heritage at The Kennel Club, said: "This new exhibition is a real celebration of our four-legged-friends and the many beautiful drawings of dogs that are held in the Art Collection and we are excited that many of these pieces will be exhibited to the public for the very first time.

"Once seen as simply a preparatory tool, drawing is now deservedly recognised as a standalone medium in its own right and visitors can look forward to seeing delicate pencil, exuberant pastel, elegant lines and, of course, many champion dogs, across a wide range of both contemporary and classic artists."

Running concurrently with the Drawings of Dogs exhibition will be a capsule exhibition of the work of contemporary artist, Deirdre Ashdown. The Kennel Club has been steadily accruing a strong collection of original works and prints by this artist who is well-known for her wonderful pen and ink drawings of dogs. A huge variety of breeds of dog will be featured in the exhibition which spans her artistic career and will also include her commemorative works for the UK Toy Dog Society.

The exhibitions opened on 9 October 2024, and will remain until 25 April 2025

Both exhibitions opened from 9 October at The Kennel Club Art Gallery at 10 Clarges Street, Mayfair, W1J 8AB, from Monday – Friday, 9:30am to 4:30pm.

George Earl's sketches of Setters

Renowned dog artist's sketchbooks donated to The Kennel Club

A selection of sketchbooks and microfilm copies belonging to the renowned 19th century animalier artist, George Earl, have been acquired by The Kennel Club and are part of the Drawing Of Dogs exhibition which opened this month.

George Earl, thought to be an early member of The Kennel Club, became known for his paintings of sporting dogs, and his canine artistry, alongside that of his brother, Thomas William Earl, and further descendants, earned the Earl family recognition world-wide with both dog enthusiasts and artists. The artwork of the family often attracted royal attention due to a shared interest and love of animals.

In 2022, The Kennel Club hosted The Art of the Earl Family exhibition which was the largest compilation of works from the family displayed together in history, and now five of George Earl's sketchbooks will be housed by The Kennel Club Art Collection, thanks to an important donation by the Earl-Tomaszewski family, Australian descendants of the artist.

The contents of the sketchbooks include preparatory sketches that can be traced to some of Earl's most well-known work, including The Field Trial, as well as Going North and Coming South.

Marianne Walker, Art Collection Curator at The Kennel Club, said: "George Earl's legacy has had an enormous impact across the art world as well as within the dog community, so we are delighted to have received such an important and prestigious donation.

"These pieces have never been exhibited to the public before, so we are looking forward to introducing his work to a whole new audience."

The sketchbooks will be displayed for the first time as part of the upcoming Drawings of Dogs exhibition, which will be open to the public from 9 October, at The Kennel Club Art Gallery at 10 Clarges Street, Mayfair, W1J 8AB, from Monday 10am to 4pm.

Agility Team GB secures series of medals at World Championships

Agility Team GB are celebrating a successful week at the 2024 Agility World Championships, bringing home four medals – three silver and one bronze – across team and individual competitions.

The World Championships, which took place at Sentower Park, Belgium from 1-6 October, saw hundreds of handlers and dogs competing from 47 different countries across the globe.

Dalton Meredith, from Bristol, with his Border Collie, Clippy (Ag Ch Fandabidozi Eclipse Of Dust), won a silver medal in the Intermediate Individual competition, narrowly missing out on retaining his gold medal from last year, following a run-off with Polish competitor, Iwona Golab, with SeeYA, after the pair achieved the same overall result.

Further silver medals were achieved in the Small Individual competition by Martin Reid, from Leamington Spa, Warwickshire, and his Shetland Sheepdog, Selfie (Ag Ch Get It With Eager To Work), as well as by the Large Team, made up of: Chris Kerton, from Bridgend, with his Border Collie, Cop (Infinity Runners Shanapu); Dave Munnings, from Bicester, Oxfordshire, with his Border Collie, Legacy (Ag Ch Comebyanaway Wot A Legacy); Martin Reid, and Border Collie, Shape (Ag Ch Lilhaze Spring Into Shape); and Naarah Cuddy, from Leamington Spa, Warwickshire with her Border Collie, Lemon (Ag Ch Lilhaze Dark Pleasure).

A bronze medal was also awarded to Naarah Cuddy and Lemon in the Large Individual competition.

Agility Team GB Manager, Greg Derrett said: “The management team are thrilled with the performances from this year’s team. This group of handlers have had a phenomenal year, topping the medal tables at the European Open Championships, followed by these top achievements at the Agility World Championships.

“GB now has partnerships in contention for medals in all heights and it’s very pleasing that all heights have contributed to both competition’s medal haul.” Agility Team GB consisted of 21 dogs, including reserves, who were selected following the try-out events which were held earlier in the year at Dog Sports Derby in March 2024.

Agility Team GB is supported by The Kennel Club, Natural Instinct, SWAG K9, Galican and Dog Sports Derby.

Peter Roy, Managing Director from The Nutriment Company, said: “On behalf of Natural Instinct, we’d like to congratulate Agility Team GB on bringing home four medals at the Agility World Championships this year. It has been an impressive year for Agility Team GB, and we are so proud to sponsor this fantastic team of dogs and handlers!”

Daniel Millwood, owner of SWAG K9 said: “Wow! What an amazing event! The agility at the World Championship’s this year was such a high standard and with so many ‘nearly’ runs as well as the perfectly executed ones; Team GB looked really good out there.

“Well done to the Large Team coming home with Silver and to Naarah, Martin and Dalton, all getting overall medals at their respective heights.

“We look forward to continuing supporting the team alongside The Kennel Club in 2025.”

The 2025 FCI Agility World Championships will be held in Kalmar, Sweden from 17-21 September 2025.

Scottish Hound handler wins National Junior Handler of the Year title

A teenager from Glasgow has been awarded the title of National Junior Handler of the Year, and is believed to be the first Scottish-born handler, who also resides in Scotland, to win the title in almost 50 years.

Ellie Darling Steele, aged 16, was awarded the top spot by judge, Luke Johnston, at the prestigious final on 5 October, organised by the Junior Handling Association (JHA), alongside her Rhodesian Ridgeback called Zula (Rottzridge Perihelion at Gileeja). Scottish-born Hazel Kirkland won the title in 1975, handling a Pointer.

The event took place alongside The Kennel Club's Junior Warrant of the Year semi-final, both held at The Kennel Club Building in Warwickshire on Saturday 5 October 2024. Ellie has been a Young Kennel Club (YKC) member for 10 years, won the Scottish Junior Handler of the Year final held in 2023 and won the YKC Handling Gundog 12-16 years class at Crufts 2024, handling a Pointer. She will now represent the UK at the Joe Cartledge Memorial International Junior Handling Final held at Crufts 2025, on Friday 7 March, where the judge will be Kimmo Mustonen from Finland.

In the second part of the competition, the top six competitors were given a Tibetan Spaniel to handle, with Ellie handling Nova. The Kennel Club and JHA would like to thank the owners of these Tibetan Spaniels for lending their dogs - Claire Cooper, Lilly O'Brien, Ashley Halliday and Elise O'Connor.

Commenting on her win, Ellie said: "It meant so much, there's not many Scottish finalists that have ever been in the UK Junior Handler final so I was very proud to get there from winning the semi-final back in August at the Hound Association. I still don't think I have come down from cloud nine from winning the semi-final, the feeling was completely unmatched. Goodness knows how long it'll take for today's win to sink in!

"It has been difficult leading up to the final as the dog I won the semi-final was my own dog Roxy, but unfortunately she has been unwell. Everything is OK now and she is recovering well but still needed time to heal. So, a week before the final, we decided it was best to change dogs so Gillian Black and Janice McKinley who were coming to support me anyway, offered to lend me their dog Zula for the final. I can't thank them enough."

Ellie won her spot in the final by winning first place at the JHA semi-final heat in August 2024 at the Hound Association, held at Stafford County Showground, under judge, Abi Levene. Abi was National Junior Handler of the Year in 2019.

Ellie is currently studying Media Communications at City of Glasgow College and works part-time at Ibrox Stadium. She trains at Dumbarton and District ringcraft club. She enjoys photography and loves walking her dogs down to the River Clyde in her spare time.

The National Junior Handler of the Year final, organised by the Junior

"I still don't think I have come down from cloud nine"

The final results of the National Junior Handler of the Year 2024 were:

Winner: Ellie Darling Steele, aged 16, handling Zula (Rottzridge Perihelion at Gileeja), a Rhodesian Ridgeback.

Runner-up: Megan Slack, aged 16, handling Hudson (Multi Ch MacDuff's Critical Acclaim), a Portuguese Water Dog.

3rd: Emily Moores, aged 17, handling Casper (Violis Wait N'See ShCEx), a Miniature Schnauzer.

4th: Isabelle Collier, aged 17, handling Otis (Ch Oakswarren Inferno), a Hungarian Vizsla.

5th: Kaitlyn Collier, aged 15, handling Allan (Pavvali's First Choice at Cassibawn), a Pomeranian.

6th: Morgan Taite-Shoosmith, aged 17, handling Iris (Irisaddition She's All That With Bridus JW), a Bearded Collie.

Handling Association, has been running since the 1970s and is one of the most hotly contested junior handling finals in the country. The semi-final heats for the 2024 competition took place between December 2023 and August 2024 and more than 150 junior handlers competed in these classes at the national group championship shows.

THE KENNEL CLUB
ASSURED BREEDERS

Find a puppy with the Assured Breeders scheme

Owners who buy from a Kennel Club assured breeder spend nearly 20% less in vet bills* compared to those who buy a dog elsewhere.

“Our dog is the light in our lives. Would always recommend a Kennel Club assured breeder.”

“I love my dog because this little bundle of fluff is the best thing that ever happened to us.”

“I love my dog because of the way he looks at me, his playful nature and his unconditional love!”

“I love my dog because she is my devoted best friend.”

For a healthy, happy puppy always buy from a Kennel Club assured breeder and do your part to help put puppy farmers out of business.
